Dear reader,

Over the past few years we were able to (re-)publish various titles in different titles; English, French, Kinyarwanda, Lhukonzo, Luganda, Swahili and Zulu. And more is coming! We are very thankful to our Lord for the opportunity to publish these books, booklets, magazines and leaflets, which have proven to be really helpful to countless believers across many countries on the African continent.

In this publication we would like to give you a short overview of what is available at the moment in the various languages.

If you are interested in one or more titles, please do not hesitate to contact us at info@all-nations.nl.

Kind regards,

All about speaking in tongues — F. Legrand

What do the Scriptures really say about speaking in tongues? Are the charismatic gifts of today the same as those in the New Testament? Is there an explanation that makes sense and fits all the Bible verses on these subjects?

Fernand Legrand, a well-known evangelist in French-speaking countries, shares clear, convincing Biblical answers to these questions. His hard-hitting book puts today's gifts to the test and makes clear and simple sense of the Scriptures.

Paperback, 216 pages, perfect bound.

Signs, miracles and speaking in tongues

This booklet contains four articles by bros. F.B. Hole, H.L. Heijkoop and A.J. Pollock on the subjects of signs, miracles and speaking in tongues. These subjects are very often misunderstood and much wrong doctrine and practice comes from that.

These four articles would help the reader to understand these matters from a Scriptural perspective and not get entangled in erroneous doctrine and practice.

Paperback, 36 pages, saddle stitched.

The Book of Romans — Tim Hadley

The purpose of this book is to provide a simple study tool for those desiring to dig into the Book of Romans.

Each chapter is replete with pertinent and suggestive questions to promote study or discussion. Whether for personal use, small groups or even larger Bible studies, this book will be the perfect aid for those who desire to learn more of “God’s Amazing Grace That Transforms Lives”.

Paperback, 76 pages, saddle stitched.

Also available in Kinyarwanda, Lhukonzo and Luganda.

The Book of First Corinthians — Tim Hadley

The Christians at Corinth, like many believers today, were affected by the wickedness all around them. They wanted to have the blessings of new life in Christ, but also wanted to hang onto the pleasures of the old. They wanted the best of both worlds and this affected their relationship with each other, the lost and believers in other cities.

The teaching in this book helps them to know God's wisdom for living together in the body of Christ.

Its study guide format uses pertinent questions as a tool for small groups or even larger Bible Studies to dig into this important part of the Word of God for themselves.

Paperback, 84 pages, saddle stitched.

Also available in Kinyarwanda, Lhukonzo and Luganda.

The last words — Hamilton Smith

In these last words the Lord Jesus spoke hours before His work at the cross of Calvary, we hear, as one has said, "The voice of Jesus prolonged through all ages, as fresh to-day ... as it was then in the upper room in Jerusalem. It has a voice intensely human in its tones of sympathy and affection; yet in revelation and authority no less distinctly divine."

If, by this exposition of the Gospel of John, chapters 13 till 17, any child of God is drawn nearer to the One whose voice we hear in the last words, it will not be in vain that it has been written.

Paperback, 96 pages, saddle stitched.

Also available in French, Lhukonzo and Luganda.

That He might bring us to God — H.L. Heijkoop

What an astonishing miracle of God's grace that we, once sinful, hateful enemies, should be brought so close to God! This book is based on a series of lectures given by brother H.L. Heijkoop.

The subjects of these studies are still very interesting and of great help for any believer wondering what Scripture tells us about:

- Who is God and who is man?
- Repentance, confession and new birth
- Justification and peace with God
- Deliverance and salvation
- The sealing and anointing with the Holy Spirit and His indwelling in the believer
- Eternal life
- The leading of the Holy Spirit
- Election

These essentials of Christian faith should be prayerfully considered by every serious believer. May our God bless any reader who carefully studies these subjects in the light of the Holy Scriptures, so as to discover more of the treasures which are found in Christ alone.

The full volume, containing all eight lectures, is available as a hard cover book, 192 pages, sewn binding.

The separate topics are available in paperback, saddle stitched booklets.

The local aspect of the Assembly of the living God

“Christ also loved the Church and gave Himself for it” What did the Apostle Paul mean by “the Church” or “the Assembly”. When he penned these words to Christians at Ephesus? A special type of building? The religious segment of society? A denominational organization? According to the Word of God, the Church is a building, but not constructed by human hands. It is a segment of society, but includes only those redeemed by the precious blood of Christ. It is a living organism indwelt and empowered by the Holy Spirit. In this book the author leads us into a comprehensive study of those Scriptures which reveal the Church. He continually points us to the word of God, as our ultimate source of knowledge and also our authority for action. God is concerned that we know how to behave ourselves in “...the house of God which is the Church of the living God.”

This publication is part of the well-known book “The Church of the living God” and deals with the local aspect of the church in detail.

Paperback, 180 pages, perfect bound.

Also available in French.

Tongues, signs and miracles — Alfred E. Bouter

The manifestation or marks of the Holy Spirit versus imitation in the Church. The author deals with this subject in details and shows from the Bible what is real and what is not...

Paperback, 76 pages, saddle stitched.

The last words — Hamilton Smith

In these last words the Lord Jesus spoke hours before His work at the cross of Calvary, we hear, as one has said, “The voice of Jesus prolonged through all ages, as fresh to-day ... as it was then in the upper room in Jerusalem. It has a voice intensely human in its tones of sympathy and affection; yet in revelation and authority no less distinctly divine.”

If, by this exposition of the Gospel of John, chapters 13 till 17, any child of God is drawn nearer to the One whose voice we hear in the last words, it will not be in vain that it has been written.
